

A visionary woman-Rukhsana

Rukhsana poor woman of village Kech from Union Council Kech of district Dera Ismail Khan. She is leading her life bare minimum resources but her intense labor keeps her moving ahead.

Due to the extreme poverty, her parents arranged her marriage in her child hood and sent her to Punjab province. Rukhsana was laboring for her husband Mohammad Ameer and in laws. She was also rears their animals, and works out in the agriculture field as well. Nevertheless, their cruelty dominates, they maltreated her and often beaten her. In the meanwhile, she has a daughter and a son. But, her husband after his 2nd marriage gave her divorced and thrown her out of home.

In the meanwhile her parents dies, so she went to her aunty (mother's sister), who taught her to fight with crises and keep oneself alive. She has learnt embroidery work and now keeping her life goes on.

She also becomes member of village organization and peace committee with an injective to motivate people against child marriage and violence against women. She is just middle pass but have a vision of better life.